

Thomas Pinckney to Andrew Jackson, December 24, 1813, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

THOMAS PINCKNEY TO JACKSON.

Fort Hawkins, December 24, 1813

I have written to desire Genl Flournoy to send from Fort Stoddart a Convoy of Provisions up the Alabama to the Fork as soon as he can procure it and can send a Detachment strong enough to fight its way up, but I know not when he will be able to effect it. Genl Floyd will accompany this by a Letter informing you of his present situation and intention.

I have the honor to be very respectfully Sir Your Most Obedient Servant.
